Complete Publication Solutions LLC names Senior Project Manager

Horsham, PA, June 23, 2008 — Complete Publication Solutions, LLC, a strategic scientific publication firm, is pleased to announce Jamie Stevens as Senior Project Manager. Mr. Stevens will assume a leadership role in ensuring that client projects meet specifications, timelines, budgets, and quality standards.

“Jamie’s skills and background in project management and in developing positive client relationships are key traits we value at CPS,” stated Rick Lamb, President of CPS.

Jamie comes to CPS with over eight years of pharmaceutical marketing experience. Before joining CPS, he has gained account management and project management experience in numerous therapeutic areas at Arista and TVG Inc. Jamie’s experience spans many therapeutic areas including: cardiology, endocrinology, infectious disease, ophthalmology, pain management, respiratory, and urology.
